DISTRICT OF NEVADA*Instructions for Filing a Civil Rights Complaint
by an Incarcerated Individual*A. Who May Use This Form

If you are incarcerated, you must use the attached form (unless you are challenging your sentence or conviction, see next paragraph). The attached civil rights complaint form is designed to help you prepare a complaint seeking relief for alleged violations of your federal civil rights. These complaints are usually about the conditions of your confinement, but they may relate to other issues (except for your sentence and conviction, see next paragraph).

Do not use this form if you are challenging the length of your sentence or the validity of your conviction. If you want to challenge a state conviction or sentence, you should file a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 for writ of habeas corpus by a person in state custody. If you want to challenge a federal conviction or sentence, you should file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 to vacate sentence in the federal court that entered judgment.

B. Filing a Civil Rights Action

To initiate a civil rights action, you must submit:

- 1) a completed complaint form
and
- 2) a check or money order for $405 (which includes the $350 filing fee and the $55 administrative fee), or an inmate application to proceed in forma pauperis.

If you can pay the full $405 filing fee, please send a check or money order made payable to "CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT" with your complaint. If you cannot pay the entire filing fee when you submit your complaint, please complete an inmate's application to proceed in forma pauperis, which is available at your institution. You may request the packet titled "Information for Filing an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis by an Inmate under 28 U.S.C. § 1915."

You must file your complaint in the unofficial division where you are incarcerated. See Local Rules of Practice for the United States District Court for the District of Nevada ("LR") IA 1-6, 1-8. The Clerk of the Court maintains offices in Las Vegas and Reno at these addresses:

Failure to state the facts and claims within the body of the complaint or amended complaint, without reference to any attached exhibits or affidavits, may result in dismissal.
- If you believe that you need to file a complaint or amended complaint that is longer than 30 pages, you must file a motion seeking permission to exceed the page limit and explain your reasons for exceeding the 30-page limit. Your motion to exceed the page limit may not be longer than 3 pages.

Part C: Nature of the Case

- Briefly give an overview of your case by providing general facts about your case. This is not the place to provide detailed information about what each defendant did to violate your rights (see Part D).

Part D: Cause(s) of Action

- This is where you identify what rights you claim the defendant(s) violated. The form provides three pages for alleging three claims. If you are alleging more than three claims, then attach an additional page for each additional claim (so that there is only one claim per page). Number the additional pages “5-A,” “5-B,” etc. and insert the pages immediately behind page 5. Remember, your complaint may not exceed 30 pages.
 - Claims: You must identify which civil right was violated. You may allege the violation of only one civil right per claim.
 - Issues Involved: Check the box that most closely identifies the issue involved in your claim. You may check only one box per claim. If you mark the box “Other,” you must identify the specific issue involved.
 - Date(s): Identify the date(s) or date range of the alleged violation.
 - Supporting Facts: You must state facts supporting the violation. You should be as specific as possible and describe what each individual defendant did to violate your rights. You should name the individual defendants and include dates when possible.
- You must follow the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure when drafting your claims and allegations.
 - Your complaint must contain “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that [you are] entitled to relief.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2).
 - “Each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(d)(1).
 - “A party must state its claims or defenses in numbered paragraphs, each limited as far as practicable to a single set of circumstances.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 10(b). Each claim founded on a separate transaction or occurrence must be stated in a separate claim. Id.
 - You may add multiple claims to a lawsuit when those claims are against the same defendant. Fed. R. Civ. P. 18(a).
 - You may add multiple parties to a lawsuit where the right to relief arises out of the “same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2)(A).
 - Unrelated claims that involve different defendants must be brought in separate lawsuits.

Part E: Previous Lawsuits

- You must answer the questions in this section by marking “yes” or “no.”

Part F: Request for Relief

- Print the relief you are seeking in the space provided.

Signature

- You must sign your name and print the date you signed the complaint. Failure to sign the complaint will delay the processing of your action. If someone wrote this civil rights complaint for you (such as an inmate law clerk), that person must write their name on the line next to your signature.

D. Amended Complaints

If you need to change any information in the initial complaint, you must file an amended complaint. The amended complaint must be written on a new, blank copy of the attached civil rights complaint form. The amended complaint must be complete and may not incorporate by reference any part of your prior complaint. Any allegations or defendants not included in the amended complaint are considered abandoned. Please refer to LR 15-1 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 15 for how and when a party may move the court to file an amended complaint.

The Las Vegas Marshals 1 and 2 pull me over for having temp plates. I pull into Del Taco where I'm headed to pick up a food delivery. They get my info, check my registration. They say they smell weed and they want to do field sobriety. I agree. They said it is OK to wait on the Sargent because my leg hurts. The sargent gets there, ask if I need medical, I say no. (3-7)
 The Marshals and possibly LMPD officers ⁽³⁻⁷⁾ aimed weapons at me for no reason and told me if I moved, I would be shot even though I told them I had no weapons and when they took me and the car they found nothing. I rolled my window down and got my paperwork out my car partners and went through my phone to get my insurance. Talked to both officers, they told their back I refused to talk to them. They lied. They made their back show up with guns drawn by telling them I had weapons and refused to roll down my window or get out the car. I did not refuse. I told them I would do a sobriety test. But my leg is injured and if they want me to stand on it I walk the sergeant there. They said OK, but then told the sergeant I refused to get out my car (I did not) and refused to talk to them and show documents even though I did.

CLAIM 2

4. Supporting Facts: State as briefly as possible the FACTS supporting Claim 2. Describe exactly what each specific defendant (by name) did to violate your rights. State the facts clearly in your own words without citing legal authority or argument.
- The marshals took my information down (1-2 and 3-7) and told me it was all good and my documents were valid. They told me my driving was fine. They said they wanted me to do a sobriety test because they could smell weed. I told them I had flower in the car but I wasn't impaired and hadn't smoked in days. And I didn't understand why I had to do a sobriety test for smelling like weed and they said I did not seem impaired by my driving so I felt like they wanted to hurt me on something so after giving them everything and answering all their ~~questions~~ questions and agreeing to do a breathalyzer and the eye/head/finger test from the car they only wanted me to walk on my hurt leg so I feared for my well being and asked for a sargent. THEY AGREED. They asked me to roll down the window. I did. I told them they it cold. if you had to talk to me just tap the window while we wait on the sargent. They said ok. They did not ask me to just step out the car for their safety. They said they wanted to do a sobriety test. They agreed to wait for the sargent. They told the sargent I didn't talk to them. They towed my car from Del Taco lot even though Del Taco did not tell them to. They agreed to pay back the money I spent at the tow yard.

4. Supporting Facts: State as briefly as possible the FACTS supporting Claim 3. Describe exactly what each specific defendant (by name) did to violate your rights. State the facts clearly in your own words without citing legal authority or argument.
- (my Defendants are responsible for everything in this packet)
- ON 12/22/24 I was arrested By Marshals for no Reason while working on a contract to move and fix cars. I had 2 cars on a tow truck for delivery 12/23/24 where I was to pay 1800 cash on delivery. Being held in Jail I couldn't meet them, and they took them to their own storage facility. They demanded around 3K for them to give my cars back and take them where they need to go.
- my Business Partner and I did not pay on paying this much at any point especially not because I got kidnapped By Police. Those cars were a part of my Burrito Business also my music but mainly the contract to fix them and rent them out. and these are not my first cars i've fixed and sold. This situation made my Business Partner and I have to put everything on hold because we did not factor in me going to jail for no Reason mid move.
